Raiders are ready

Basketball season opens Saturday

Coach Coty Dickerson's varsity Raider basketball team, set to begin the season this Saturday against Amherst at home, will feature five returning players from last year's squad, three newcomers, and four players up from last year's junior varsity squad.

Four of the returnees are seniors: Gary Ferguson (guard), Ricky Miller (forward), Bobby Carter, (center), and Todd Scruggs (forward and center). Mike Jackson, the other returning player is a junior who plays forward and center.

Tyrone Abbitt, (senior guard), Freddie Lawson, (senior guard), and Kevin Kendrick, (junior forward), will be playing varsity basketball for the first time this year.

The four players up from last year's jayvee squad include Tim Austin (junior forward), Kinckle Robinson (junior guard), John Hurt (junior guard), and Tom Cobb (junior guard).

"I have been very pleased with the way the kids have performed in practice so far," commented Dickerson Monday. "We have 12 young men who want to, and are ready to play basketball."

The team has good size this year, with Miller, Carter, Jackson, and Scruggs all 6-2 or more. In addition, Ferguson brings good experience to the guard post for the 1983-84 season, having seen considerable action last season.

"We have five good kids returning from last year, and the other seven players have good potential," Dickerson continued. "Our goal now is to gain experience and depth. We have the advantage this season of having had the whole team start practice at the same time – Nov. 10 – and the kids have been working well together. We're ready for a game. What we lack in experience we'll have to make up in hustle."

In addition to experience, one objective of the team in the early stages of the season will be to stay healthy, and to stay out of foul trouble, according to Dickerson. "Todd (Scruggs) is recovering from a broken ankle, and Ricky (Miller) is recovering from a broken arm," Dickerson notes.

"We have some good quickness at the guard positions," Dickerson continues. "Abbitt, Hurt, and Lawson are all very quick, as is Ferguson. We just need to gain some experience."

Commenting on the Seminole District in the upcoming season, Dickerson says "This might be the best district, in terms of overall competition, in the last ten years. It might take 15 or 16 wins to take the title this season."

Dickerson says all the teams will be tough. "We respect them all, but we feel we have what it takes to compete with them all. We have some tough games early. Amherst and Gretna are our first games."

Dickerson, who commends last year's jayvee coach Bob Hudson, this year's junior varsity leader John Pettyjohn and eighth-grade coach Ray Archer for the job they've done in preparing the players at the lower levels, says, "the kids have had a great attitude in preparing for this season."

Saturday's game against Amherst will begin shortly after the conclusion of the jayvee game, which is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Rocks news

By CASSIE BALDWIN

NOV. 21 - Thanksgiving Day was a rainy one. It was a day for family gatherings and joy. We should be thankful we live in a nation where we enjoy the highest degree of freedom. Special thanks for all we have and for all we are.

It was good to have our college students home for Thanksgiving.

It was a good day at Rocks last Sunday, Nov. 20. It was good to have Mrs. Betty Leftwich to render a special musical program on Sunday night.

At the morning service, Denise Chernault joined our church family and Emmett Dinkins was welcomed back.

Many came out for the Thanksgiving service Wednesday night. The cantata presented by the choir was enjoyed, as well as the covered dish dinner afterwards.

The Rev. and Mrs. Wesley Williams and Greg left Thanksgiving morning for South Carolina to visit his parents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mason left Thanksgiving morning to visit his parents for a few days.

Glad Mrs. Gillette Elder is out after being quite sick. May she have a speedy recovery.

Mr. Herman Wingfield has had surgery at Lynchburg General Hospital. May he has a speedy recovery.

A sad gloom was cast over the community and county when the news came Tuesday afternoon that our beloved friend, Mr. Luther Nash had passed away. Sympathy goes out to the family and all relatives. He will be greatly missed everywhere.

A large crowd attended the funeral at Pamplin Thursday morning, in spite of the downpour of rain.

Lloyd Richardson got an eight-point deer Tuesday.

Many attended the Ferguson and Bondurant wedding at Evergreen Saturday night, Nov. 19.

Get-well wishes go out to Julia Wingfield, who hurt her knee last week.

Myrle Richardson spent Thanksgiving with her children in Connecticut.

Mrs. Stella Price is home from the hospital after surgery. A speedy recover is wished her.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roach had a number of their children spend Thanksgiving Day with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mason spent the Thanksgiving weekend in Maryland.

Mrs. Ethel Glover, of Crewe, stopped by Wednesday afternoon to see her sister, Mrs. Carrie Richardson. She and her son were on their way to spend Thanksgiving in Christiansburg. She will spend a few days with her sister, Carrie, when she returns.

Sorry to say Tommy Goin had to have his leg amputated after his accident. A speedy recovery is wished him.

Sympathy is extended The Rev. Doug Gibson of New Chapel Church, whose parents passed away recently.

Mrs. Edna Covington is in a nusring home at Spout Spring. Hope she will do well there.

Mrs. Willie Smith had a number of her children and grandchildren visiting Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry East of Lynchburg, spent Thanksgiving Day with her parents, The Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Elder, and Patricia.

Seeding program continues

The Glatfelter Pulp Wood Company, Fredericksburg, announces the continuance of a cost-share tree seeding program for landowners in Central Virginia and the Virginia portion of the Delmarva Peninsula.

Included are the counties of Accomack, Albermarle, Amherst, Appomattox, Buckingham, Culpeper, Cumberland, Fauquier, Fluvanna, Goochland, Louisa, Madison, Nelson, Northampton, Nottoway, Orange, Prince Edward, Powhatan and Spotsylvania.

The Glatfelter firm owns and manages woodlands in Virginia to help supply wood fiber to the P.H. Glatfelter Company's pulp and paper mill in Spring Grove, Pa.

The company will match the purchase of up to 20,000 loblolly pine seedlings by a landowner under the following conditions:

(1) the landowner must be an individual, non-industrial woodland owner;

(2) the planting site has been satisfactorily prepared by accepted forest practices (or in an old field) and has been approved for planting by a Virginia Division of Forestry forester;

(3) the planting site must be located in one of the counties listed above.

The Glatfelter program has an overall dollar limitation. Seedling orders will be accepted by the Forest Service Division on a first come basis until the Glatfelter program dollar limit has been reached. After that, the entire payment for orders will be the responsibility of the landowners.

To secure a seedling order form contact your local Virginia Division of Forestry office of The Glatfelter Pulp Wood Company, P.O. Box 868, Fredericksburg, VA 22401, telephone (703) 373-9431. Residents of Accomack and Northampton counties contact The Glatfelter Pulp Wood Company, P.O. Box 1971, Salisbury, MD 21801. telephone (301) 642-3163.

THANK YOU

I want to thank all of you who supported me with your vote on November 8, electing me to a seat on the Appomattox County Board of Supervisors representing the Clover Hill District.

I will do my best to serve the people of the Clover Hill District and Appomattox County.

Thank you again for your local support.
